HOMICIDE INVESTIGATION 4515 EAST FAIRMOUNT STREET

On May 21, 2014 at 7:15 a.m., officers from Operations Division Midtown responded to an unknown trouble call at a trailer park in the 4500 block of East Fairmount Street. The 911 caller advised police there was a male lying in his doorway unresponsive.

Upon arrival officers determined the male victim was deceased. Officers discovered a female inside of the residence who was deceased as well. The male and female both suffered obvious signs of gunshot trauma. A small child, approximately 1 year old, was also located inside the residence unharmed.

Homicide Detectives are in the initial stage of this investigation. Further details will be released as they become available.
